AHIP Statement on President's Address to Congress

Washington, D.C. – Karen Ignagni, President and CEO of America's Health Insurance Plans, issued the following statement tonight on the President's Address to Congress:

“The President has challenged the nation to reform the health care system for the sake of our families, our communities and our economy. Health plans strongly agree that comprehensive health care reform cannot wait. We will continue to offer workable solutions to ensure that all Americans have quality, affordable health care.”
